

Sustainable Small Farms & Backyards

i INFO

March 20th,
2019 - April 24th,
2019

Wednesdays 2-5pm

Roper Mountain Science Center

402 Roper Mountain Rd,
Greenville SC

3 week livestock track- $100

3 week non-livestock track-
$100

6 week track- $175

Contact Lindsey Craig

864-878-1394

lcraig@Clemson.edu

Should you require special accommodations due to a disability, please notify our office ten days prior to the event.

For registration and more information:

https://secure.touchnet.net/C20569\_ustores/web/classic/product\_detail.jsp?PRODUCTID=3745

This class focuses on helping producers with small acreage (10 acres or less) best utilize the resources they have. This course offers a livestock and non-livestock track for 3 weeks (each) or the option of all 6 classes. The class will cover basic livestock and forage care, honey bee production, small fruits and vegetable farming and the rules and regulations of selling your products.